

NEA EXPO 2008

WASHINGTON, DC JULY 1-3, 2008

August '08 - The Love Sees No Color Ethnic Diversity Curriculum, a multi cultural program created for elementary school children which was inspired by the songs of Nassiri, was presented at the 2008 National Education Association Expo (NEA Expo) in Washington, DC.

The NEA Expo is the nation's largest gathering of educational leaders, representing over 3 million NEA members across the United States. The annual meeting which ran from July 1-3 at the Washington Convention Center drew more than 10,000 attendees.

Joining more than 200 exhibitors, Team Nassiri presented the LSNC Curriculum to educators from across the nation. The program was enthusiastically received by many teachers, who requested instructions on how to include it at their school.

At the beginning of the new '08/'09 school term, The Clark County School District and The Public Education Foundation (Las Vegas, Nevada) will roll it out to 25 new schools.
